

My Miracle Day

I'm asleep in my bed and I get up at 10am. My bedroom is red and white in colour. I can see out of my bedroom window and the weather is perfect....it is Summer. ☀️ I can see out of my other bedroom window and I can see Disney Land !! I can see my family and xxxx.

We're going to have a big breakfast in a fancy restaurant. I'm going to have a full English - beans, fried bread, sausage, hash browns, potato waffles, chicken nuggets and a chicken, stuffing and gravy bagette.

I'm wearing my P.J's and slippers and xxxx is with me. After breakfast we're going Go-Karting. My car is glittery purple and we're going to do as many laps until we've had enough. I will go as fast as I can !! I feel tired after all that driving so we go to the Disney Land Café. I'm going to have an iced Latte with double -choc chocolate cake and cheese cake. xxxx will choose cheese cake 'cos he loves that.

After we've eaten, we go to the cinema and watch a Disney film. My favourite character is Mickey Mouse but I like all the characters. I sing at the top of my voice to all the songs.

I have now travelled to Australia and the weather isn't too hot, it's just right. It's night time and I can see kangaroos and their little joeys in the wild. I can also see some lions and koala bears.

I'm feeling sleepy now so I will go back to my king size bed. I've got loads of pillows and blankets. xxxx is with me and we are going to watch a film. My thoughts are that I want to do today all over again. I feel calm, happy and comfy. I plan to go to sleep at 11pm and I will have some nice dreams.
